If you're looking for classic spring break fun and games, reserve a yellow chair and spend the day at one of the largest pools in Palm Springs. The Saguaro's property is colorful, the drinks are strong and plentiful, and you might even catch a visiting DJ showing off his or her best set. You'll get a first class view of the beautiful San Jacinto mountains in the distance and a prime seat for those famous picturesque desert sunsets. thesaguaro.com
