Palm Springs has risen in popularity over the last decade, cementing its place as the hotspot destination for gorgeous desert weddings. That's not hard to believe, however, what with its picturesque palm-tree lined wilderness, warm weather, and countless boutique hotels popping up across town. These dreamy conditions just so happen to also make Palm Springs the perfect place to throw a bachelorette party. If you're looking to head out west to celebrate you or a bride-to-be, here's what you'll need to have the bridal getaway of a lifetime.

4. Dance (and Drink!) Like There's No Tomorrow

Just because it's a sleepier town doesn't mean there isn't anywhere to get your groove on. From Bootlegger Tiki's umbrella-adorned cocktails, to Carnival Cabaret's drag show, to Village Pub's divey dance floor, the opportunities to make weird and wonderful
