12 El Jefe

The lobby-adjacent wood-paneled tequila bar and restaurant at The Saguaro Hotel continues to serve crowds of hip guests and locals who come for creative tacos like ranchero sauce-spiked short rib or chicken tinga with pickled onions. They really pack the place during the always-busy Taco Tuesday (which has expanded to Thursdays now as well) with $5 margaritas and not a taco over $4 all night. For a craftier drink, try the jalapeno-celery margarita shaken with a housemade celery syrup or the mezcal mule.
