

PALM SPRINGS BIKE GUIDE

A self-guided ride through Palm Springs neighborhoods, midcentury homes, and local landmarks

The Loop
12 to 15 miles

The Loop:

12 to 15 miles

DIFFICULTY:

Easy to Moderate

WHEN TO GO:

Early morning or late afternoon.
Midday desert sun is not your friend.

START HERE:

Right out front. Roll out from Saguaro and the loop brings you back to your own pool.

BRING:

Water, sunscreen, sunglasses, a hat, and a phone for photos. There will be photos.

1

SAGUARO PALM SPRINGS + EL JEFE

Home base, and where the ride earns its margarita. Fuel up on tacos at El Jefe before or after your ride.

2

CANYON ESTATES

South Palm Springs at its breeziest. Midcentury homes, green lawns, and mountain views for days.

3

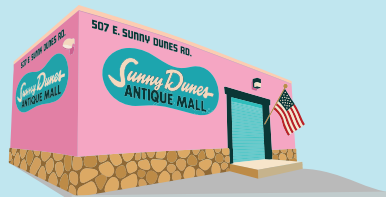

SMOKE TREE RANCH & STABLES

Walt Disney kept not one but two homes here. Trade the handlebars for a saddle at the stables on Toledo.

4

SUNNY DUNES & VINTAGE SHOPPING DISTRICT

The block for treasure hunters. Antique malls, retro finds, and a warm bagel from Townie around the corner.

5

INGLESIDE ESTATE

Old Hollywood behind the hedges. A 1922 Spanish Revival hideaway that once kept the guest list very secret.

6

PALM SPRINGS ART MUSEUM

Roll up to the culture stop. Modern art and a cool lobby right as you hit downtown.

7

FOREVER MARILYN

She's 26 feet tall and she's not moving. Grab the photo, then get back on the bike.

8

OLD LAS PALMAS & CELEBRITY HOMES

Star maps, but make it pedal-powered. The neighborhood with more famous addresses than anywhere in town.

9

KAUFMANN HOUSE

Neutra's 1946 icon in the flesh. Glass, steel, and desert, not a bad angle in sight.

10

RUTH HARDY PARK

Lawns, shade, restroom and a place to catch your breath.

11

MOVIE COLONY NEIGHBORHOOD

Sinatra slept here. So did Cary Grant. Cruise the palm-lined streets and pretend you belong.

12

PALM SPRINGS CITY HALL + DOG PARK

The civic detour. Say hi to the dogs, nod at City Hall, keep rolling.

13

PRESCOTT PRESERVE

100 acres of former fairway gone wild. Open to everyone, four-legged friends welcome.
